

Math Appreciation Week Keynote Speaker

MATH IS A DRAG

MONDAY,
MARCH 25TH

Kyne Santos

Kyne Santos shares her story of coming out as a young gay boy in a conservative household, excelling in math at school and being a makeup star on the internet, all leading up to her meteoric rise to becoming a famous math teaching drag queen. She shares some of her favorite math problems and her advice on embracing yourself and what makes you unique.
